

INTERPRETATION MANAGER

York County's Culture & Heritage Museums offers an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic and skilled professional to build a team of staff and volunteer Certified Interpretive Guides for our system of museums.

The CHM includes Historic Brattonsville (a 775 acre living history site), the McCelvey Center (museum collections and performing arts center), the Museum of York County (a general museum), and an environmental history museum being developed on the Catawba River.

CHM seeks a full time Interpretation Manager to lead a dynamic interpretation team. Duties include: delivery/teaching and evaluation of engaging thematic interpretive experiences across the CHM system of museums including school and public programs, the scheduling and training of interpretive staff and volunteers to meet audience needs.

The successful candidate will possess a passion for interpretation first and foremost. A skilled motivator and dynamic public speaker, the incumbent will build and direct a team of interpreters that will carry us to the new museum. Strong organizational skills and ability to oversee many moving parts and coordinate ongoing projects is necessary.

Salary to commensurate with experience. The Culture & Heritage Museums is an EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Visit www.chmuseums.org to review the full job description, and learn more about the future of the CHM! Procedures for applying are on the website.

No phone calls please. Only qualified applicants will be contacted.